CHRIST AMONG US: Our God is not a stranger, he is a God who comes...whether we await him or not. He is always coming because he is life and light and, above all, love. And life must create, and light must shine, and love must give itself. We may do all things well or all things ill, yet he comes, for his coming depends on no decision of ours. He has loved us first...and freely. He has no debts and we no claims. Willing victim of his own love, he comes to us even in the midst of our sins: the Father embracing the prodigal offspring, the shepherd seeking his lost and frightened lamb. Because he has promised, and because he loves, and for no other reason...
