

Peggy Manton
(Boherlahan Dualla)

1923 – 2014

On Tuesday, 28th January 2014, the death took place peacefully at her residence in Farranavarra of Margaret “Peggy” Manton. Peggy hailed from a well-known local family, the Barretts, long established in the Synone area for many generations. Way back in the nineteen forties, Peggy married Bob Manton of Moyne and when he came to live in the parish, he brought with him an intense love of hurling already nurtured in his native place. Indeed, he gave many years as an active player on local teams. Later, as his sons grew older, he instilled in them that same enthusiasm and each one in turn played on the local teams, some with a degree of success. Peggy is survived by her sons Denis, Seamus, Martin, Thomas, Pat and Gerard, her daughters Margaret, Mary, Betty and Christina, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and many relatives. Go ndéanai Dia trocaire uirthi.