Wednesday (22 February) is the feast of The Chair of St Peter, apostle. This feast celebrates Peter as bishop of Rome and the focus of unity in the communion of one faith. An ancient feast, it relates to the early Roman custom at this time of year of remembering the ancestors of the family. Today, therefore, is a moment for all of us to give thanks to God for our ancestors in the faith who have passed on this precious treasure to us.

Thursday (23 February) is the memorial of St Polycarp, bishop and martyr.

Weekly Envelopes: We are very grateful to the growing numbers who have used the weekly envelopes over the last few weekends, and we encourage more to use them as they are of great assistance to the parish. What is placed in the envelope can be the contribution of the family. For people who prefer to pay by cheque, it would be greatly appreciated if you would make cheques payable to "Boherlahan-Dualla parish," as this is safer for bank clearance. If we missed out on anyone in the distribution of the envelopes, we would love to hear from you.

Community Website: Refer to www.boherlahandualla.ie to be reminded of upcoming community events. A photo from Ardmayle Heritage Society's recent visit to the restored Ballytarsna Castle appears this week. The website depends on people sending in material to keep us up to date and to form a record of community life. All contributions are welcome, long or short on whatever topic you choose: e.g. local achievements, opinion pieces, obituaries, travel stories, recipes etc. Send them to editor@boherlahandualla.ie.

Boherlahan-Dualla Historical Journal Society: Planning for the 20th issue of the journal has commenced. A number of articles are already completed. If you are thinking of writing an article for inclusion in the 2017 journal, contact Paddy O'Dwyer or any member of the society within the next two weeks.
