After the resurrection Mary and the apostles met Jesus in a new way. They did not recognise him. Their eventual recognition of him was more in his gift of consoling them, in familiar gestures like the breaking of bread and explaining the Scriptures. Consider the consolation which Christ gives to his disciples, and compare how friends are accustomed to consoling friends. From their place in heaven our dead share with us something of the consoling grace of the Risen Lord Jesus. Sunday is, in fact, a mini Easter!

Life: Live slowly, think slowly, for time is a mystery. Never forget that love requires always that you be the greatest person you are capable of being. Be grateful for the manifold dreams of creation and the many ways of the unnumbered peoples. Be grateful for life as you live it and may a wonderful light always guide you on the unfolding road.

A Prayer for Examinations: Come Holy Spirit with all your gifts and graces. Help me to recall the facts I have studied for this exam. Guide my thinking process and fill my mind with the ideas and concepts I need to know in order to do well. Illuminate my mind and make clear the answers I am supposed to give for each question. As I answer, keep my thoughts clear and concise. Replace any anxiety I feel with peace knowing that you are with me to assist me and guide my responses. Amen.
