Prayer of the Sick: Lord God, you are calling us today to come to you to be forgiven, refreshed, strengthened, healed, and made new again. We answer that call and come to you. You welcome all our needs. Look into our hearts and see our deepest needs. And as long ago your compassion reached out to everyone, let it now move you once again to give us faith and hope, to forgive all our sins and to heal our pains, wounds or diseases. Amen.

If only we knew how to look at life: 'If only we knew how to look at life as God sees it, we should realize that nothing is secular in the world, but that everything contributes to the building of the kingdom of God. To have faith is not only to raise one's eyes to God to contemplate him; it is also to look at this world—but with Christ's eyes. If we had allowed Christ to penetrate our whole being, if we had purified ourselves, the world would no longer be an obstacle, it would be a perpetual incentive to work for the Father in order that, in Christ, his kingdom might come on earth as it is in heaven. We must pray to have sufficient faith to know how to look at life'
(Michel Quoist)

Let us not add to them this day.

So to our caution and attention,

To beg God's blessing on this car,

To travel safely near and far. Amen.
