Farewell to Fr. Tom Dunne.: This weekend we say farewell and thanks to Fr. Tom for his loyal and dedicated service in the parish over the last almost seven years. We congratulate him on his appointment as P.P. of the parish of Murroe and Boher. We wish him good health, good friendship, peace and happiness in his new assignment. Personally I thank him for his friendship, cooperation and support to me at all times. We pray God's blessing on you in your future work in the Archdiocese.

The Community Website: at www.boherlahandualla.ie has photos and a report about a visit from the USA to Tobberadora Monument and adjacent old forge by a granddaughter of Thady Flanagan: one of the hurlers whose achievements are commemorated there. We also have a photo from the recent repainting of the front of Bianconi Coach House in Boherlahan village. Please send any material for the website to editor@boherlahandualla.ie.
