Boherlahan-Dualla Community Website: The Community Website at www.boherlahandualla.ie has photos from the recent Harvest Thanksgiving Service at Regaile, information about Developing the Parish Hall and Village, details of the Draft Rules and the work of the Boherlahan Community Association, notes about Autism Research and Fast Fashion and other news. Please send any material for the website to editor@boherlahandualla.ie.

8th Collection: This collection was traditionally the collection to help the upkeep of the schools. Now our nine collections help to pay all our commitments to diocese and church. I want to say a special thank you to all who support the parish. I do appreciate your loyalty and generosity. The collection will be taken up next weekend.

Newsletter Notices: Please forward by Wednesday evening any items for the Newsletter to Fr. Egan at the email address: frjoeegan@gmail.com.

Boherlahan-Dualla Historical Journal: The 2022 Journal will be launched on next Friday 11 November in the Parochial Hall Boherlahan at 7.30pm. The Journal will be launched by Pat Maher, Freighduff. Some of the articles in the Journal this year include: A great hurling match; The end of a journey-Jozef Mielniczak,1926-2021; The last and the longest; The townland of Camus formerly in St. Patrick's Rock; Disappearing townlands; and Thurlesbeg, 1856-1885: A time of consolidation, prosperity and conflict, Part Two. The Journal Society wish to thank the contributors of articles, people who supplied photographs and all who in any way helped to produce an outstanding Jubilee Journal. All are welcome to join us at the launch.

November Masses for the Dead: Every November our thoughts and prayers turn to our loved ones who have died. Our faith tells us that our prayers and Masses can help them. The November envelopes are available in the porches of the churches. We ask you to write the names of those you wish to pray for and hand them in as soon as possible. In collecting your envelope, if you know a neighbour or neighbours who would appreciate an envelope, please take one for them.

November Mass at Ardmayle: We hope to celebrate the November Mass on Sunday 27th November at 3pm.

November Prayers for our Dead: Prayers for our Dead will be said after the weekend Masses during November. We also encourage people to visit the cemeteries.

Boherlahan Community Association: The AGM. Of Boherlahan Community Association takes place on Wed. November 9th in Boherlahan Parish Hall at 8.30pm.

Everyone aged 18 or over are invited to attend.. The Agenda available on www.boherlahandualla.ie outlines ongoing work and future plans.Nominations for positions on the committee should be submitted by email to boherlahancommunityassociation@gmail.com before 8.30pm. on Sunday November 6th. New Committee members welcome. Boherlahan Community Association was formed in 2021 to provide facilities for the benefit of our community and enhance community life in our area. We invite anyone who would like to help in the work of redeveloping our Community Hall and implementing a Community Development plan for Boherlahan to join the committee. We hope to see a lot at the AGM.

November Prayer: Lord God, whose days are without end and whose mercies beyond counting, keep us mindful that life is short and the hour of death unknown. Let your Spirit guide our days on earth in the ways of holiness and justice, that we may serve you in union with the whole Church, sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love. And when our earthly journey is ended, lead us rejoicing into your kingdom. Amen.
